----- To a man who has captured our hearts in only two years. . . .

----- To Mr. Robert J. Barefoot

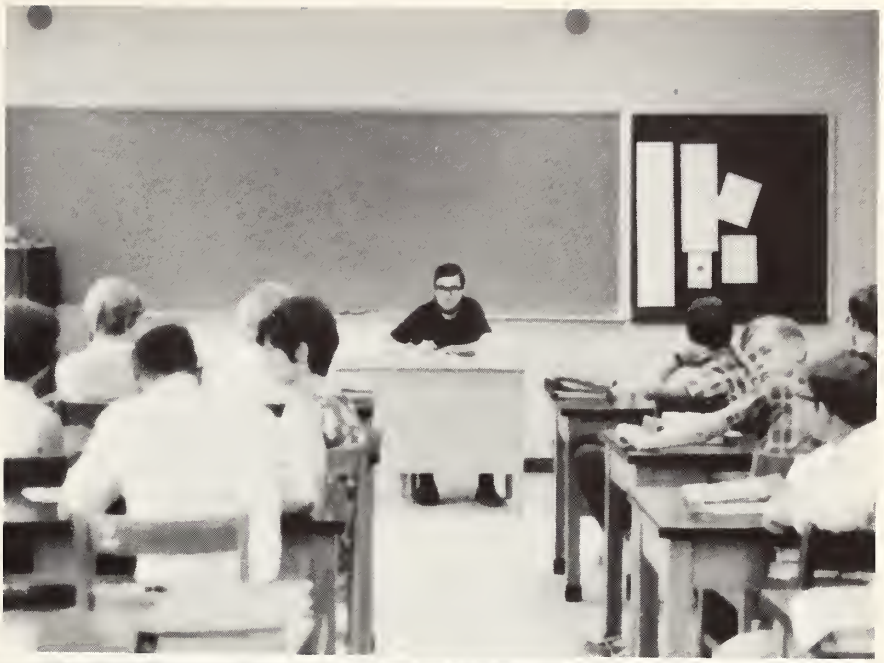
We Dedicate This, Our 1968 Senoca

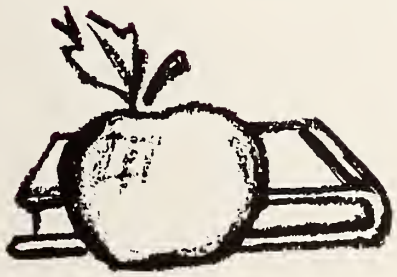
Selma

High

'68

School Faculty





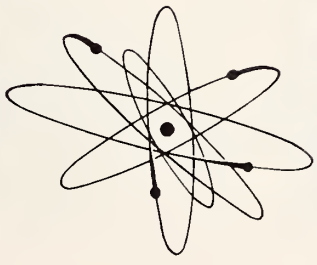
Mr. Evander S. Simpson, Johnston County Superintendent of Schools, has worked loyally throughout the years.

We, the Senior Class of 1968, are very grateful to our principal, Mr. John W. Walker. He is to us an excellent leader, and a very good and helpful friend.

Mrs. Janie Temple... Homemaking is her profession... "Who knows, maybe cooking DID get me a man!"

Mr. J.W. Bailey... Known for his Selma High noisemakers... "Golly, Mr. Bailey!"

Mrs. Frances Norris... Selma High's female Einstein... "Is this equation balanced,
$CH_3COOH + C_2H_3COONa$
$C_3H_5COOH + CH_3COONa$?



Mrs. Mary Sullivan... Someone told us she liked to be around books... "O.K., who put the dictionary on the Fiction shelf?"

Mr. Millard Johnson... Best biology teacher in the whole school... and defending his "Meanest Man of the Year" title---"You can outline the biology book!"

Miss Betty McLamb... Our own personal IBM--- "Ingenious Betty McLamb"... "I would have had these papers graded, but my red pen ran out of ink!"

Mrs. Jean Herring... "If you can read 4000 words a minute, what are you doing in here?" She's always friendly, and she's always smiling.

Mrs. Wilma Howard... She finally made it to high school this year, where she proved herself to be a big help to all the students. "If they won't accept you at Duke, we'll just have to try Harvard."

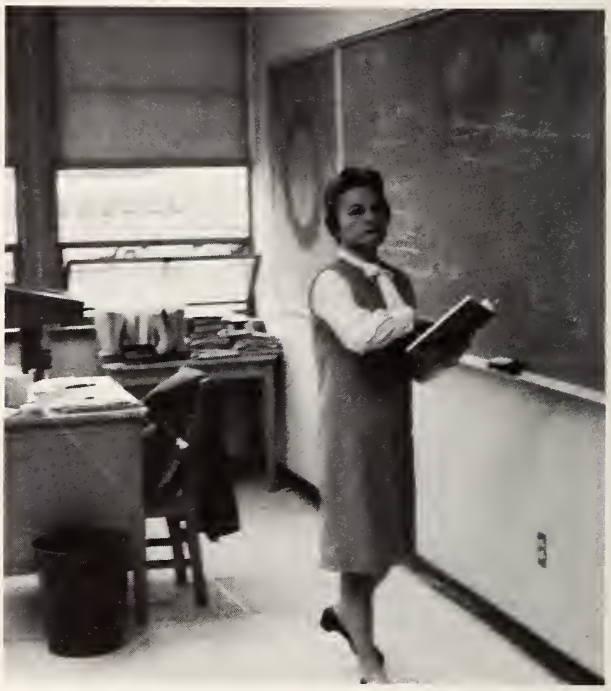
Mrs. Shirley Sullivan... has lots of business problems... "Do conditioning practice on pages 14-28--- time limit is five minutes!"

Mrs. Patrica Griffin... keeps handing out those English assignments... "Was your illness contagious?"

Mrs. Linda Futch... puts her heart in her work, you should hear her read "Macbeth"... "Study hall is one of my favorite classes."

Mrs. Shears... she loves Shakespeare... "Only a few notes--- (ten pages later), just a few more."

Mr. Carl Parrish... likes to call world history, current events... "I have to check on a couple of absent absentees, who were late for washing boards, for being late!"



Mrs. Mattie Boyd... her classes are fun, even if you don't know anything about algebra... "Let's all join in and sing." "You might see this on a standardized test."

Miss Betsy Tyson... "Come out from behind that coat rack and let's start class!"

Mr. Robert Barefoot... shows his concern for Selma in many ways... "Come by after class."

Mr. Shields... really believes in physical "phitness"... "Close the door Sammy, we're discussing business!"

Mr. Jack Nordon...he really taught his FFA a lot---they're one of the best..."Which is more convenient for you---burning these demerits off, or writing them off?"

Mr. Simmons...helps us prepare for the future... "There should be SOMETHING for you in all these books!"

Mr. Billy Howell... "No, I didn't design the White House."

The Selma football team was small this year, with most of the players having to play the entire game. The team had a lot of determination, however, and they never gave up. Their moment of glory came when they capped off the Centennial with a victory over Wake Forest.
